SEVERE WEATHER WILL BRING CRISIS

Sudden Drop in Temperature Would Play Havoc With Diminishing
Coal Supply Here.

DEMAND FOR WOOD INCREASES

Local People Watching Every Move
Relative to Final Settlement of The Miners' Strike.

Local people who have a limited supply of coal in their homes, today looked at the lead colored sky with deep concern as they feared that the gray clouds indicated the approach of the blizzard which is sweeping through the western part of the country. The weather bureau predicts snow for certain parts of Indiana within the next twenty-four hours and this would more than likely bring colder weather. While the coal shortage is not as serious in Seymour as in some other places in the state, local people do not exactly relish the idea of zero weather unless the miners are again at work, at least.

Thus far most of the domestic demands for coal have been met, although the supplies delivered to some places are necessarily small and will not last long if the mild weather should suddenly come to an end. Dealers are trying to ration what little coal they can get to only those homes that are without fuel.

Local people entertained hope yesterday that the strike would be ended by today and many believed that neither the miners nor the operators could well afford to refuse the proposal which was made by the fuel administration, acting on behalf of the public. The miners, however, saw fit to reject the proposal and those who are in touch with the situation in the national capital are frank in their confession that they do not know when the controversy will be settled. There is talk that the government will operate the mines temporarily until the miners decide to return to work.

The majority of the local manufacturing plants are still in operation but all of them are conserving every possible ounce of coal. The Farmers' Hominy Mill has enough coal on hand to meet its needs for about thirty to forty-eight hours and unless a shipment is received before the expiration of that period it will be forced to close. Other manufacturing plants are running on a close coal margin and the owners cannot say just how long they will be able to operate without additional supplies.

Many people are laying in a supply of wood blocks for use in furnaces as well as in stoves. The demand for wood has increased noticeably during the last few days and many farmers are hauling blocks here for which they find a ready sale.

There is much available timber in woods clearings near this city, and it has been proposed that a concerted effort be made to gather some of this to be used for industrial purposes as well as to supply household needs. The Seymour Woolen Mills are in operation this week because a number of the employees cut a large supply of timber in a woods near here Saturday afternoon. Other factory employees are said to be willing to adopt the same method if it will prevent the plants from closing which would mean they would be thrown out of their jobs temporarily.

No steps have been taken as yet towards an early closing schedule by merchants. Most of the retail dealers have ample supplies of coal on hand to heat their stores for several weeks. It is said out that if the situation later demands curtailment of business hours, the majority of merchants would rather close early each afternoon than to suspend business one day each week. This would also be more satisfactory to the Public Service Company as it would reduce the demand for electrical current each day.

HIGH TENSION LINE ABOUT COMPLETED

System Will Connect Local Electric Light Plant With Hydraulic Station at Williams.

LINEMEN WORKING NEAR HERE

Radical Change in Operation of The Interstate System Will be Brought About Shortly.

The construction of the high tension line between this city and Williams is about completed. The electricians and linemen are working only a few miles west of here and the line will be suspended the entire distance within a few days. The system will connect the local plant of the Interstate Public Service Company and the hydraulic station at Williams. It is understood that the Interstate Public Service Company which controls the traction lines and a number of utility plants between Indianapolis and Louisville intends to secure most of its electrical energy from the Williams water power station as soon as the high tension line is in operation.

The construction of the high tension system will revolutionize the utilize business in this section of the state. Through it all the systems which are scattered over a wide area will be connected so that one may become dependent upon the other. A high tension system between this city and Indianapolis has already been completed and it is reported that tests have been made whereby electricity for light and power in this city has come from the Interstate plant in Indianapolis. The local system is also connected with the Columbus plant and for some time part of the current for local consumption has come from Columbus. It is stated that the tests by which the Indianapolis plant was used to furnish power for this city proved very satisfactory.

It is stated that when the system is completed the Williams station will furnish practically all the electrical energy that is needed for the operation of the traction cars as well as for lighting and heating purposes in the various cities along the route. This city will become the important center in the electrical distribution system inasmuch as the Williams lines will connect with the Indianapolis-Louisville system here.

The advantage of operating the various system as a unit is readily seen inasmuch as if one plant breaks down uninterrupted service is insured by simply switching to another line. This was done recently here when minor trouble developed at the local power station. The present power station will be used for emergency purposes, it is stated, when the new high tension system is in operation.

With the new high tension line almost completed, especial interest is centered in the system because of the possibility of producing current for commercial and domestic purposes without the extensive use of coal. It is pointed out that when the system is completed the hydraulic plant will furnish the needed electric energy and in this way service for the public despite the coal shortage will be insured.

STRANGER KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE

Steps in Front of Car Driven by Franklin Man Near Interurban Station.

A stranger whose name was not learned had a narrow escape from serious injury this morning when he was knocked down by a large Cole automobile driven by a Franklin man. The accident happened near the Interurban station on East Second street.

The automobile was being driven east on Second street past some interurban freight cars. The stranger stepped from behind one of the cars in front of the automobile and was knocked down. However, the car did not pass over him as he crawled from in front of it after being knocked to the ground. The driver immediately brought the car to a standstill and got out to give the stranger any assistance needed. The stranger escaped with bruises. The automobile driver gave the stranger his name, address and automobile number and told him that if any medical attention was needed as a result of injuries sustained in the accident he would pay the expense. The stranger left on a northbound traction car.

EVANGELIST HAMILTON TO ARRIVE ON SUNDAY

Special Services at Central Christian Church Will Be Held at 7:30 O'clock Tonight.

The special meetings which have been announced at the Central Christian church opened last night with a large attendance. The Rev. O. E. Hamilton, the evangelist who will conduct the services, failed to arrive. The Rev. W. E. Carroll, pastor, had received no word last night from the evangelist and was at a loss to explain for his absence. Today, however, Mr. Carroll received a telegram from Mr. Hamilton stating he would be here Sunday. The telegram stated that he had written a letter to that effect, but for some reason the letter was not delivered. H. H. Saunders, who will conduct the singing, will also arrive Sunday.

Mr. Carroll preached a strong sermon last night to an interested audience. The meeting will be continued tonight at 7:30 o'clock and Mr. Carroll will again speak.

STREET COMMISSIONER UNABLE TO GET GRAVEL

Streets Throughout City Are Badly
in Need of Repair—Cinders
Being Used.

Louis Aufenberg, city street commissioner, stated today that he was unable to get gravel from the river on account of high water on the sand bars. Mr. Aufenberg stated that in many places throughout the city the streets are in very bad condition.

However, it will be impossible to make the repairs until gravel can be secured to fill up the holes. Mr. Aufenberg will have the city team at work hauling gravel for the streets just as soon as the river falls enough that it will be possible to drive on the sand bars. Cinders are hard to get now, the street commissioner stated, due to the coal shortage in the city making it necessary for some of the plants to shut down a part of the time. Cinders that are available are being used where the streets are in the worst condition.

COAL BINS BEING UTILIZED AS FUEL

Old Buildings Torn Down and Used
As Wood in Middle Western States.

DEMAND FOR SCREENINGS

Schools in Kansas City and Few
Other Cities are Closed Indefinitely.

Chicago, Nov. 28—Bituminous coal consumers of the middle west today started tearing down the coal bin to use it for fuel.

With the first real snow storm of the year covering central, western states, many reports were received of tearing down outhouses and other old buildings to use the lumber for stove wood.

Piles of screenings and other low grade fuel which has accumulated for years in yards of coal dealers was grabbed up by manufacturing plants in a last effort to keep up normal operation. Many plants were already closed down.

Schools in Kansas City and other places were closed indefinitely. Theaters and amusements also have been banned in several sections where the fuel situation is particularly acute.

Industrial plants shut down from Wednesday night until Monday morning in several cities to conserve the rapidly dwindling supply of coal. Train service was cut to the minimum. One of the leading Chicago manufacturers predicted today the majority of the industries of this city would be closed down in another week if the strike is not settled.

The snow storm which covered an area from Canada to Arizona and from Chicago to the west slope of the Sierra Nevada mountains, demoralized wire service and tied up transportation.

Suicide.

South Bend, Ind., November 28—Peter Kruyer, fifty-nine, chief deputy internal revenue collector of district 11, was found dead at his office in the postoffice building this morning at 6:15 o'clock with no evidence of the cause of his death at hand. A note to his wife asking forgiveness and stating he could stand the persecution no longer substantiated suicide theory. An autopsy will be held today.

BROTHERHOODS FAIL TO COME TO AGREEMENT

General Chairmen Consider Proposal of Director General Hines
As to Overtime Pay.

Cleveland, Nov. 28—The conference of general chairmen of the four railroad brotherhoods stood adjourned today without accepting or rejecting the new overtime pay offered to workers in the slow freight service made by Director General Hines. The chairmen voted to send a special delegation to Hines in quest of more information.

It was argued by a large number of officials that Hines' offer as it stands would in reality mean a loss to the men affected. An acceptance of the new overtime payment plan would wipe out all special allowances included in the present working agreements. The special delegation will ask Hines to show specifically just how much workers in the slow freight service will receive under his plan.

The general wage controversy affecting all railroad workers again cropped up at yesterday's session, but no action looking toward an open rupture or settlement was taken. The 180 chairmen representing the brotherhood of locomotive firemen were to meet here separately today to discuss the demand of their organizations for increased pay.

DRASTIC ACTION IS CONTEMPLATED

Government Expected To Outline
Course Relative to Coal
Strike Tomorrow.

JOINT CONFERENCE ENDS

Federal Operation of Mines is Regarded Unlikely—Palmer and Garfield Confer.

Washington, November 28—Announcement of the next move of the government in the coal crisis may be delayed until tomorrow or perhaps Tuesday. Fuel Administrator Garfield today set about getting the government's plan into shape following the breakup late yesterday, of the joint conference of miners and operators and the refusal of the miners to accept a wage increase of 14 percent, as worked out by Garfield.

Garfield refused to give any indication as to what action the government will take beyond this statement: "Production of basic necessities will be protected by the government. The government will resent profiteering by operators or miners."

It seemed likely today that the government will first endeavor to get as many miners as possible back into the mines and to insure them protection through distribution of troops. Consumption of coal is less than production despite the strike, according to government reports which showed that yesterday production was 33 percent, and consumption about 25 percent normal.

Drastic government action to get the mines running is expected here before the end of the week. With the west in the grip of a blizzard which seems about to sweep eastward, the coal operators and representatives of striking miners broke up their joint conference here late yesterday, being unable to agree on a wage increase.

Government officials today hastily arranged conferences. Attorney-General Palmer hurried back to Washington expecting to take counsel with Fuel Administrator Garfield.

President Wilson's cabinet meets tomorrow. The coal situation will be the first question to be taken up, it is expected. Federal operation of the mines is one possibility, although this is considered unlikely. The government, it is emphasized, would face the same difficulty in getting miners to return to work that operators were unable to overcome.

ENTIRE BALTIMORE BLOCK WIPED OUT BY FLAMES

Several John Hopkins University
Buildings Destroyed—Loss Estimated at $1,000,000.

Baltimore, November 28.—An entire city block including several John Hopkins University buildings and business places was destroyed by fire of unknown origin early today. The fire which began shortly before midnight was still smoldering at noon. The loss was estimated at nearly $1,000,000. Nine firemen were injured and hundreds of persons were driven from their homes in upper stories of business buildings. A high wind carried embers many blocks.

The fire spread so quickly that at an early hour today every building in the square bounded by Howard, Ross, Monument and Eutaw streets had either been wrecked or damaged.

A rough estimate placed the damage as high as $1,000,000. Among the more important buildings burned were McCoy hall, Topographical Survey building, old biological laboratory, Levering hall and chemical laboratory.

An explosion first attracted the attention of a passerby. Flames were leaping from every window in McCoy hall. For a time it was believed these detonations were due to the presence of chemicals. The building had been occupied by attaches of the Edgewood Arsenal, but Major Stephen J. Delaney, in command of the Edgewood Arsenal, said there were no government chemicals there now.

ators which was called in an effort to settle the wage controversy, came to an abrupt ending yesterday when the miners refused to accept the proposal of Dr. H. A. Garfield, fuel administrator, that they be given a fourteen percent. increase. Under the Garfield plan the higher wages were to be absorbed entirely by the operators and the price of coal to consumers was to remain unchanged. The public had entertained hope that the controversy could be settled through government intervention and that the production of coal would be resumed at once.

The miners thus far have stood defiantly for their demands. Public welfare has not been considered. The miners apparently forget that they will make a losing fighting without public sympathy.

What the public wants now is coal. If the mine operators attempted to close the mines because they could not sell the coal at an arbitrary price which they demanded they would be guilty of a serious crime against the public. And this, in effect, is the very thing that the miners have done. So far as public relations are concerned the miners' organization has a duty to the people just as much as the operators have.

To the average citizen whose household coal supply is rapidly diminishing and who is probably thrown out of labor because of the strike, it seems that the fair thing to do is for the miners to return to work and then settle their differences with the operators. There is no reason why they could not do that. Their case would not be prejudiced in the least. The public is tired of any organization, capital or labor, interfering with its recognized rights to live in contentment and happiness. If the miners continue their stubborn attitude long, the public must act. That would mean the operation of the mines under the protection of troops. If such a measure is necessary it will be a long time before the miners could again expect the public to aid them in their demands.

The makers of false teeth in New York have formed a union and threaten to strike unless it is recognized. It ought to be a snappy organization, regardless of other claims.

PRISONER HELD IN LOG
JAIL IN BROWN COUNTY

First Time in Ten Years That Old
Structure Has Been Used by Authorities.

For the first time in ten years, the doors of the log jail in Brown county have closed on a prisoner. He is John Harden, a world war veteran, who is accused of whipping his wife.

On account of insanitary conditions the old building has been condemned several times and the prisoners of that county have been taken to the Johnson county jail at Franklin, which is in the same judicial district as Brown county. The cost of transferring a prisoner from Brown to Johnson county is five cents a mile each for the sheriff, his deputy and $10 for each prisoner.

Some of the taxpayers are complaining about this cost. They say that the cost of feeding prisoners in Franklin is a great deal higher than it is in this county, and they can see no plausible reason, after the jail has been condemned, the commissioners do not build a new one. Recently the commissioners had a new roof placed on the jail, but since that time several prisoners have been taken to Franklin. The citizens say that the old argument that no jail is needed in that county does not hold good.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite Influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

First Baptist Notes.

A most unusual and interesting Thanksgiving service was held at the First Baptist church at 10:00 yesterday morning. It was under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Society and they rendered the music. Miss Marie Gudgel presided at the organ. Miss Marian Crabb gave a piano solo, Miss Dorothy Smith sang a soprano solo assisted by the large chorus. The service opened with a beautiful ordinance of baptism, at which time thirteen were taken into the church by the pastor. The entire family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barkman, Miss Norma and Miss Mary Margaret introduced the impressive service by entering the water at the same time. The pastor's two daughters, Gladis Crisler Hayward and Doris Baseom Hayward were among the number. An offering for the needy was taken amounting to $7.61. The service will undoubtedly be a regular feature of the Thanksgiving season.

The B. Y. P. U. Society recently cleared over $20.00 at the Japanese Bazaar held in the church Nov. 21, 22, 23. The money will be used for church purposes.

An unusual opportunity to hear a great speaker on a great subject will be offered the public next Sunday night when Former Governor Hanley will be present to speak on "Holding Aloft the Torch." The Governor has only recently returned from an extended trip overseas and has first hand information on war conditions. He will fearlessly and frankly discuss them. Doors will be opened at 7 p. m. and a baptismal service will precede the address. Music, a splendid welcome and a great address awaits the people of Seymour. Come.

POSTMASTER NOW LIKE NEW PERSON

Gained Weight and System Is Generally Improved Since Taking Meritone

"Meritone has helped my system all over and has improved me so much that I feel like a new person," said Postmaster George T. Searight, of Hendersonville, Tenn.

"I didn't have much appetite before taking Meritone, and didn't feel well. "I've taken one bottle of Meritone and am now on my second, and from my experience with it I'm quite willing to recommend it publicly," said Mr. Searight.

"My appetite has come back fine and I have gained in weight."

Because of Mr. Searight's official position as postmaster and because of his reputation for honesty and integrity, the public everywhere will recognize the value of this statement given for no other reason than to let ailing people know what they can expect of Meritone.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Santa will give VALUABLE gifts this Christmas

YES, the buying public, at holiday time, is growing more discriminating. Giving just for the sake of giving something is poor judgment at both ends. Why not bestow gifts that will last—that have genuine value—that represent something really worth while.

This store, although a Jewelry Shop, is filled to Christmas brimming with just such gifts. Beautiful, valuable, highly-prized gifts that endure.

Cut glass, jewelry in a wonderful new variety, watches and clocks, dainty additions to Mr. Lady's Jewel case—Perhaps a silver service or a single piece of exquisite design.

Make this a "JEWELRY STORE" Christmas—you will not regret it.

NEVER FELT AS GOOD
SAYS TERRE HAUTE

Man Claims Health is Better Than
It Has Been For Nearly Two Years.

DISCUSSES BIG BENEFITS

"Trutona, Beyond the Question of a Doubt Has Done Good Work in My Case."

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 28—I've never felt as good in the past two years as I do right now," was the convincing statement made recently by Albert W. Schuetter, in discussing the remarkable benefits he has gained through the use of Trutona. Mr. Schenter, who lives at 1330 College ave., is a well known Terre Haute contractor.

"For the past two years," he said, "I haven't had much of an appetite and have been bothered considerably with belching and bloating. My stomach felt as if there was a heavy weight in it and I frequently suffered pains in it. Constipation was another of my troubles. I had to use laxatives continually. I couldn't sleep at night and get the rest I needed so much. As a result of this I was inamibitious.

"Trutona, beyond the question of a doubt has done good work in my case and I know that it is worthy of commendation. My appetite has improved agreeably and I'm not bothered with the bloating and belching anymore. The heavy feeling in my stomach and the pains as well have ceased to annoy me since I have used Trutona. And sleep, well, I sleep like a log now. In short I feel decidedly better."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L. Federmann's Drug Store.

Mrs. B. W. Noell returned to Hanover this morning after a short visit here with her husband, B. W. Noell, who is deputy revenue collector. They expect to move to this city soon.

Miss Ruth Kramer of Terre Haute, is spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer.

Elmer Burge spent Thanksgiving with friends in Sparksville.

DAMAGE SUIT TRIED IN THIS COUNTY AFFIRMED

Bartholomew County Man Given
Judgment Against a Columbus
Manufacturing Firm.

The appellate court has affirmed the verdict in favor of the plaintiff which was given by a Jackson county jury in the case of Arthur C. Crowe, of Columbus, against the Emerson-Brantingham Company, of that city. The company appealed to the appellate court which held that the circuit judge had not erred in his rulings.

The summary of the supreme court decision follows:

(1) Action by appellee as servant for the loss of an eye while in appellant's service. It is alleged that appellee's foreman ordered him to assist in the performance of work in the blacksmith shop where slivers of steel were inclined to fly in the faces and eyes of those helping, and that the appellant knew of the danger but that appellee did not and that it was the duty of the appellant to furnish the appellee with goggles for the performance of the work, alleging them to be necessary for the protection of appellee. The action was brought under the fourth section of the 1911 dangerous occupation act, Sec. 3862d Burns 1914. The complaint is sufficient. (2) Even though the danger was apparent, the work being done under a special order, the appellant was liable under Section 8020b, Burns 1914. (3) The appellant complains of the appellee removing and showing his glass eye to the jury, but the record shows that the objection was to showing his injured eye. This could not be error. (4) The complaint alleging that as result of the accident the plaintiff's eyesight was weak, etc. Under this it was not error to permit appellee to testify that his remaining eye was rendered weak etc. (5) There was no allegations in the complaint that the work was done in an improper manner, but the evidence complained of by appellant is not evidence that the work was improperly done, so not outside the issues. (6) The complaint alleging that the appellant failed to furnish goggles "or some other device" to protect appellee, there was no error in the exhibition of a screen to be fastened to the cutting device to show that a safety screen could have been used. (7) The appellee testified that the loss of his eye prevented him from following a line to drive straight on a farm. The appellant tendered a witness who had lost an eye who would testify that he had no such trouble. It was not error to exclude the testimony, it appearing appellee lost his eye a year before while the witness lost his eye sixteen years before, nor was the question asked a proper one. (8) Appellant's expert testified that the screen used in evidence as a possible guard, was impracticable. A question on cross examination "chips fly out, up or down, and you can not tell which way they will go and is a pretty dangerous proposition," was not improper as being outside the scope of the examination of the witness. (9) Requested and given instructions are reviewed and no error is found.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood, and purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does, without any of the bad after effects. Take one or two every night for a week and note the pleasing effect. *10c and 25c a box.

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than
"Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little too.
